Nancy Faure Joins Travelzoo as General Manager, France

PARIS, October 15, 2018—Travelzoo® (NASDAQ: TZOO), a global publisher of offers and experiences for members, is strengthening its executive team. Today, Nancy Faure joins the company as General Manager, France. She is based in Travelzoo's Paris office.

Nancy brings 20 years of professional experience in business management, marketing, sales, and strategic development to her new role, in which she will oversee business operations and lead further growth in France. Nancy joins Travelzoo from Ascott, a global hospitality company where she worked for five years as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. From 2002 to 2013, she worked for AccorHotels in various executive roles, including Vice President of Global Marketing for Ibis and Vice President of Global Transformation Sales Project. Prior to that, she worked for Modem Media, one of the first global digital marketing agencies and AT Kearney, a global management consulting firm. Nancy holds an MBA degree from ESSEC Business School and a master's degree in Commercial Law from University of Cergy-Pontoise.

“We are excited to have Nancy on our global leadership team,” said Dr. Holger Bartel, Global CEO of Travelzoo. “France is one of the world’s top travel destinations. Nancy’s leadership will create more options for Travelzoo members worldwide to visit France and experience its culture.”
